RE: Proposed outline for your remarks to the Security Affairs Support Association 10 October 1990, 9:30 a.m.

You are scheduled to address the Security Affairs Support Association at the Department of State. You have been asked to provide an overview of the issues that confront countries of the Third World and US policymakers. The title of your remarks printed in the agenda is "Policy Issues in the Third World and the Demands on Intelligence." Your remarks follow those of Caspar Weinberger.

Your proposed outline incorporates the outline you provided to the speechwriters for SASA as well as your recent remarks to AFIO. We have also added information provided by [] in the Office of Resources, Trade, and Technology and by [] senior economic analyst in ORTT's Economic Issues Division.
